This class has been one of my favorite classes of the major as I learned so much more than I have in other practicums.
Brother Pacini is an exceptional instructor. He has experience that he brings to our classroom with thoughtful purpose. He helps us find more meaning in teaching and gives specific feedback tailored to us and our experience. The course as a whole has a lot of moving parts and the department has done well trying to work with all of them. While there are still many improvement to make, as all of us do anyway, I was still able to learn a great deal and feel the experience was valuable even if it wasn't ideal.
The Portfolio project needs to be on canvas in some way. I do not think that it is fair to have it not on canvas and have us
